

At iShip Auto Transport LLC, our top priority is safeguarding your privacy and personal data. This privacy policy details the types of information we gather, the ways we utilize it, and the measures we take to ensure its security.

Information We Gather

When you visit our website, we may collect various types of information, including:

- Personal details such as your name, email address, and phone number.
- Information regarding the vehicles you wish to transport, including make, model, and year.
- Additional information pertinent to your shipping requirements and preferences.

How We Utilize Your Information

We leverage your information to deliver optimal service and enhance our business practices. Specifically, we may use your information to:

- Reach out to you regarding your vehicle shipping requirements.
- Provide quotes and estimates for our shipping services.
- Process payments and manage billing information.
- Enhance our website and services based on customer feedback.
- Additionally, we may use your information for marketing initiatives, such as sending promotional offers and newsletters.
- You have the option to opt out of these communications at any time by clicking the "unsubscribe" link in the email.

How We Safeguard Your Information

We take your privacy and security seriously, employing industry-standard practices to protect your information. This includes:

- Utilizing secure servers for data storage.
- Restricting access to your information to authorized personnel only.
- Regularly reviewing and updating our security protocols to ensure they remain current.

Third-Party Disclosure

We do not sell, trade, or transfer your personal information to third parties without your consent. However, we may share your information with trusted third-party service providers who assist us with shipping logistics and payment processing.

Cookies and Tracking

Technologies We utilize cookies and various tracking technologies to enhance your experience while navigating our website. Cookies are small text files placed on your device during your visit, allowing us to remember your preferences and settings, as well as monitor your activity to refine our services. You have the option to disable cookies through your browser settings; however, this may limit your access to certain features on our site.

Modifications to this Privacy Policy

We maintain the right to amend this privacy policy at any time. Any updates will be reflected on this page, and we recommend that you review the policy periodically to remain informed about how we safeguard your information.
